Recognizing the value of the Academy on the individual and the organization as a whole, the 2019 NP, Flavien Kouatcha took an audacious step and invested to record Cameroon's name back on the book. It is in this line that Emmanuel Babila, who joined the organization in 2012 in JCI University of Buea serving in various capacity from the local to National Office was selected and admitted to be part of the 2019 JCI Japan Academy.

During the extra ordinary General Assembly that held on October 30th, 2019 in Meyomessala, the young charismatic and seasonal debater was elected National President of JCI Cameroon.

At 26, he is the youngest national president in 2020 and the first graduate of the prestigious JCI Japan Academy after 10 years to head JCI Cameroon. Emmanuel Babila is a holder of a BSc in Banking and Finance from the University of Buea, Cofounder of Cameroon's first financial marketplace zangacompare.

Solemn Resumption of National Activities

On January 17th, 2020 at Hotel Des Deputes, Yaounde. The WorkTogether mandate was officially launched in the presence of administrative authorities, Local Presidents from all local organizations and some Past National Presidents, members, senior members and Senator.

During the event involved the symbolic power transfer from the outgoing President, Flavien Kouatcha to the newly elected President, Emmanuel Babila and his bureau that would ensure the smooth functioning of the organization in 2020.

The event was punctuated by Paul Zamba, sharing his experience on how he became a contextual entrepreneur in the UK without formal education and qualification. His story that ignited members' aspirations to how active citizens change their environment.

JCI Cameroon to Train 1000 Young People in the Yaounde II Municipality

JCI Cameroon National President, Emmanuel Babila on December 27th, 2019 signed a one year convention with the Youth Communal Council of Yaounde II known by its French acronym CCJY II (Conseil Communal de la Jeunesse de Yaounde II) to train more than 1000 young persons of the Yaounde II municipality on the creation of micro informal businesses and contribute to the economic empowerment and employment of young Cameroonians.

The convention was signed during the first edition of the National Forum on the Informal Sector.

JCI Cameroon to foster public and private relationships, this was the aim of the audience granted to the 6 man delegation led by the National President Emmanuel Babila by Jean Marc Mbafor, member of the National Commission for the Promotion of Bilingualism and Multiculturalism under the auspices of its President. The audience that focused on the two organizations working together to promote bilingualism and multiculturalism on the national territory was applauded by both parties.

JCI Cameroon Answers Present at the National President Meetings in Beirut Lebanon

The Immediate Past President, Flavien Kouatcha and his incomer, Emmanuel Babila didn't miss the opportunity to carry Cameroon's flag at the JCI Africa and Middle East National Presidents Meeting in Beirut, Lebanon from January 23rd – 26th, 2020. During the meeting, the presidents seized the opportunity to discuss with his counterparts from the other countries and other officials of the organization.

It is important to note that following the 2020 100% Efficiency guide, JCI Cameroon featured among the countries that had met up with Standard 1, 2 and 3 of the 100% efficiency guide which is a proof of willingness from the 2020 national Board of Directors and entire members of JCI Cameroon to bring back the national organization on the map.
